TORONTO REGIONAL TRUCK DRIVING CHAMPIONSHIP ELIGIBILITY RULES

In order to be eligible to compete in the Toronto Regional Truck Driving Championship an applicant must:

1. Must be legally licensed to operate the class of vehicle for the event in which you are competing.
2. Must compete in the jurisdiction in which their license is issued.
3. During the 12 months preceding the date of the competition, you must:
  - Have performed the regular duties a full-time professional truck driver for at least 11 months prior to the competition. Days off and vacation time to which you are entitled by your employer do not count against you. In situations of extended time lost due to legitimate problems such as unintentional layoff or a WSIB claim, you may request to enter the Championships, and, depending on the length of time in question, eligibility may or may not be granted. Each request will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. The decision of the Committee is final.
  - Not have been employed by more than two (2) employers.
  - Have not had any preventable collisions for at least 12 months prior to the competition. The Infrastructure Health & Safety Association definition of preventable collision will apply.
  - Have not had your license suspended.
4. During the 5 Years preceding the competition, you must not have had any Criminal Code driving convictions registered against you.
5. You may participate in only one Provincial Driving Championship in any year and may compete in only one class of competition e.g. straight truck, single-single, etc.
6. Any driver who is employed principally for the movement of vehicles on private property generally referred to as "Spotters", "Hostlers", "Switchers", "Yardmen", or however described is, eligible to enter Championship competitions and must meet all eligibility rules.
7. The Executive Committee reserves the right to check all applications and disqualify any driver whose collision free record is not confirmed.
8. Every contestant must complete, sign and cause to have witnessed the official entry form and submit same to the Chairman of the Toronto Regional Truck Driving Championship.
9. The Chairman of the Toronto Regional Truck Driving Championship Committee shall disqualify any contestant who, by a determination of two-thirds of the Committee members present, is guilty of conduct obviously detrimental to the Toronto Regional Truck Driving Championship, or the trucking industry, the decision of the Committee is final.

NOTE: A recent driver's abstract must accompany this Entry and Release Form.
